Fidget Spinner

A “fidget spinner” comes in all types of designs, colors shapes and sizes. Originally it was invented for the purpose of calming or entertaining.

Catherine Hettinger is credited with designing the precursor to the fidget spinner; however, her patent ran out in 2005. Since then, many variations of “fidget” toys have been created with the most popular being in the form of a spinner.

The fidget spinner accounts for 17% of online toy sales worldwide to this day. Even though sales peaked in 2017, people of all ages continue to enjoy fidgeting with some kind of toy or spinner.

Each young inventor will leave today with their very own fidget spinner to mark the 2020 Invention Convention!

About Our Speaker

We are pleased and honored to welcome Maddox Prichard as our 2020 Invention Convention keynote speaker! Maddox is a Beta Club and National Honor Society member. He also loves to play football, golf, and soccer.

When Maddox was in 4th grade, he won first place for his Make Life Easier invention at the MTSU Invention Convention. He won the Stanley Black and Decker Household Tool Award at the first National Invention Convention. From there, he received a patent for his invention in October 2018.

Maddox was honored with the Best Pitch and Audience Choice Award from Gallatin Co-Starters. He continued to inspire others by going on to receive the Governor's Award of Achievement and the Proclamation of Achievement Award from the Sumner County Commission. Over the past two years, Maddox has spoken at many events in the middle Tennessee area and around the state.

Early this summer, he pitched his invention, The Measuring Shovel, to four "Sharks" on ABC's Shark Tank! He is now working with two "Sharks" to propel his invention into manufacturing!

Special gratitude extended to our Advisory Council Members for their continued support and guidance:
