Alumni Association President

On behalf of the Middle Tennessee State University National Alumni Association, I congratulate you on joining our international network of more than 149,000 MTSU alumni. As a student, you embraced MTSU's core values of honesty and integrity, respect for diversity, engagement in the community, and commitment to nonviolence. As an alum, we hope that you represent our alma mater well throughout the world, actively contribute to your field, and are civically engaged.

Always be proud of the excellent education you received here and remain connected to your faculty and fellow alumni. Stay involved with the Alumni Association by following MTSU Alumni on social media, calling the Office of Alumni Relations at 1-800-533-MTSU (6878), and visiting mtalumni.com.

Take time today to reflect on how your life was changed while at MTSU and celebrate the hard work you put in to earn your degree. Congratulations again!

Friday Afternoon Address

Mr. William Sutton Jones

Area Executive, Pinnacle Financial Partners

As area executive, Bill Jones leads all of Pinnacle Financial Partners' efforts in Rutherford and Bedford counties. He has almost 30 years of financial services expertise and was instrumental in helping Cavalry Banking become Rutherford County's top market share holder before Cavalry merged with Pinnacle in March 2006.

Jones was executive vice president and chief administrative officer for Cavalry for four years, following seven years as a trust officer. His experience also includes serving as vice president and trust officer for SunTrust. He began his career at Provow, Jones and Associates, an insurance and financial planning firm.

Jones is very active in the community. He is chair of the board of Ascension Saint Thomas Rutherford Hospital and the Rutherford County Industrial Development Board, and he serves as a board member for the Christy-Houston Foundation and Destination Rutherford, an economic development initiative. He previously served on the board of directors of the Rutherford County Chamber of Commerce.

At MTSU, he is a member of the Jennings A. Jones College of Business Dean's Advisory Council and the MTSU Foundation's Council of Past Presidents.

Jones has been honored many times over the years for his career achievements and for his contributions to the community. In 2017, the Rutherford County Chamber of Commerce honored him as Business Legend of the Year. The YMCA of Rutherford County named him Humanitarian of the Year in 2013, a year after the Middle Tennessee Medical Center Foundation named him Philanthropist of the Year. He was the Chamber of Commerce's Business Person of the Year in 2007.

Jones is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, the Southern Trust School at Birmingham-Southern, and the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. He and his wife, Kathy, were honored in 2012 with the Jones College Exemplar Award, which recognizes alumni whose business, professional, and personal achievements make them role models. They have two adult children.

Friday Evening Address

Mr. Nicholas E. Dugger

Owner and Founder, TNDV: Television

Nic Dugger has been working in television since the age of 12. He began his career in his hometown of Jackson, Tennessee, where he worked for TRTV Channel 6 (Total Reach Television) for five years, assisting with more than 100 live sports broadcasts, the Miss Tennessee pageant, and many other annual projects.

He is an alumnus of Middle Tennessee State University, where he became the student TV station manager in his first year. In addition to production work with MT10, Dugger worked on countless mobile productions and freelanced as a producer and editor. He was nominated for two Student Emmy Awards by the Nashville/Midsouth Region of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Dugger also took part in the international JASON Project broadcasts with Titanic discoverer Dr. Bob Ballard for several years. After graduation, his experience with the JASON Project took him to Media Arts Inc. in Seattle for a staff position as a producer. This allowed him to be a part of milestones for the Discovery Channel and National Geographic, such as the first live multicamera production from an active volcano.

Dugger returned to MTSU in 2001 for an adjunct teaching opportunity in Mass Communication. In 2002, he joined The Holland Group of Tennessee, where he served as executive producer and director for over 200 corporate, promotional, and training videos.

Dugger founded TNDV: Television in 2004 and completed the construction of his first all-digital mobile television production truck. TNDV merged with three other companies in 2019 to form the largest provider of midsize mobile production facilities in the United States. Productions can be seen nightly on PBS, CMT, GAC, ABC, and many other networks. TNDV is based in Nashville with additional offices in Los Angeles and Ohio.

Dugger's dreams include developing an endowment-based after-school program for high school students to learn about mobile broadcasting. He is the proud recipient of the 2006 Regional Television Academy Rising Star Award. He has received 50 nominations for Emmy Awards, winning 14 for live production, technical achievement, and directing. He is a member of the MTSU College of Media and Entertainment Wall of Fame, and in 2018, Dugger received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the MTSU Alumni Association. He is the current president of the Nashville/Midsouth Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Saturday Morning Address

Mr. Matt Crews

Founder and CEO, Big Machine Music City Grand Prix

Matt Crews is the founder and CEO of the Big Machine Music City Grand Prix, which launched in 2021 after a nearly decade-long effort to bring an international motorsports and music festival to downtown Nashville. Today, the Grand Prix is a marquee annual event in motorsports and welcomes over 100,000 fans to Music City.

Middle Tennessee State University has played an integral role within the Grand Prix in multiple ways. The barrier system was designed by the School of Concrete and Construction Management; Jones College of Business designed the college ticket program; and the Charlie and Hazel Daniels Veterans and Military Family Center continues to be a focus of the event's philanthropic efforts.

Crews' 25-year career has spanned sports marketing, event management, and entertainment fields. Prior to founding the Big Machine Music City Grand Prix, he was president of FullCircle Ventures, which managed some of motorsports' elite drivers and produced many of the musical and brand activations at NASCAR, NFL, and NHL events. FullCircle was an integral part of Dan Wheldon's 2011 victory in the Indy 500.

Crews' career also includes serving as president and CEO of Baker Curb Racing, one of NASCAR's top teams in performance and brand activation. He brought in many of America's top brands as sponsors, such as the United States Postal Service and Ford Motor Company.

He still serves as a principal in Brewco Marketing Group, an industry leader in mobile brand and experiential marketing that activates iconic brands such as IBM, McDonalds, and Chevrolet both domestically and globally.

Crews, a native of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, is a longtime Nashville resident and a graduate of MTSU (Business Management, '91). He was a member of the 1989 and 1990 OVC Championship football teams and received All-OVC honors in the 1990 season. He has worked with Vanderbilt Children's Hospital on the Rally for Kids with Cancer events and the Nashville Predators 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund. He is also a member of the Gibson Gives Influencers.

Saturday Afternoon Address

Ms. Pamela J. Wright

Founder, Wright Travel

President and Managing Partner, Wright Development

Pamela Wright founded Wright Travel in 1981 and built the Nashville company into one of the largest travel agencies in the United States, with offices throughout the country. She sold the company in 2015 and now focuses on managing two other businesses that she owns: Wright Development, a real estate investment company, and Wright Foreign Currency Exchange.

Wright, an MTSU alumna, has served on the University's Board of Trustees since its inception in 2016 and currently chairs the board's Academic Affairs, Student Life, and Athletics Committee. She established and funded an endowed Chair for Entrepreneurship and an endowed scholarship program for the College of Behavioral and Health Sciences. Wright also chaired the five-year Centennial Campaign for MTSU, raising more than $108 million dollars.

Wright has served on the MTSU Foundation Board, the President's Advisory Council, and the Jones College Dean's Advisory Council. MTSU honored Wright in 1992 with the Distinguished Alumni Award, and she was an inaugural recipient of the Jones School of Business Exemplar Award in 2000.

Wright was inducted into the Junior Achievement Nashville Business Hall of Fame in 2021. She was designated by the Nashville branch of the Entrepreneurs' Organization as an Entrepreneur Legend in 2017—the first woman in Nashville to receive this designation.

Wright has twice been given the annual Excellence in Philanthropy award by the Tennessee Board of Regents, in 2010 and 2016. She received the Junior Achievement Leadership Award in 2001 and was named 1994 Woman Business Owner of the Year by the National Association of Women Business Owners.

Wright has served on the board of Junior Achievement of Nashville and the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce Partnership 2020 Lead Investor Council. She has been president of the Nashville chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, vice chair of small business for the Nashville Chamber, and vice chair of the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau. She also has served on the boards of Tennessee Leadership, Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, and Nashville City Club, as well as on the United Way of Middle Tennessee Campaign Cabinet. She is a member of Leadership Nashville.

Mace and Chain of Office

Originally a medieval knight's weapon, the mace evolved into a symbol of royal scepters in various crown jewel collections. Large versions of the scepter have come to represent the power and authority of institutions such as our University. The mace measures 50 inches in length and is made of Tennessee cherry wood embellished with sterling silver and lapis lazuli. The Tennessee flower, the iris, denotes the public the University serves who, by their loyalty, give it strength and power. The leaves form a crown to symbolize the ennobling achievements of our graduates. Tennessee freshwater pearls, the official state gem, suggest the inestimable value of inquiring minds. The streamer on the wooden shaft carries the names by which the University has been known since its founding. The finial at the base of the mace is a stylized nut, representing the seed from which springs the mighty tree of those committed to lifelong learning.

The chain of office worn by the president is made of sterling silver. The lapis lazuli gems, mounted on scroll shapes, represent the colleges within the University. The knotted components depict the interdependence of knowledge and the various academic programs of MTSU. The lapis lazuli and sterling represent the University colors of blue and white. The Great Seal of the State of Tennessee embellishes the medallion suspended from the chain, representing the University as part of the Tennessee higher education system.

These unique emblems of authority were designed and crafted by Professor Klaus Kallenberger, formerly of the Art Department. The mace and chain of office are a generous gift to the University from the MTSU Foundation.

MACE BEARERS

Dr. Jing Kong – Friday Afternoon

Jing Kong is a professor in the Department of Chemistry and a faculty member in the Computational and Data Science Ph.D. program. After receiving his Ph.D. in Physical Chemistry from Dalhousie University in Canada in 1996, he worked at a small chemistry software company and later became the chief scientist and CEO of the company. The company's product is a major quantum chemistry program that is sold worldwide. Kong led an in-house research team that developed some of the most efficient density functional theory algorithms with the support of 11 grants from the National Institutes of Health and published 33 peer-reviewed papers. Since joining MTSU in 2013, he has taught courses from General Education to Ph.D. levels. He has supervised two postdoctoral fellows, five Ph.D. students, one master's student, and three undergraduate students for research.

At MTSU, Kong added a new research direction for developing methods for strong electron correlation. It is one of the most challenging problems in computational chemistry, and its ultimate solution will fundamentally transform the modeling of molecules and materials. Kong's model is one of the first methods that has been shown capable of handling some of the strongest electron correlations. His group also has developed computationally efficient algorithms and software for molecular computation.

Kong has obtained four external research grants as the principal investigator from the National Institutes of Health, American Chemical Society Petroleum Research Fund, Air Force Research Laboratory, and National Science Foundation. His group at MTSU has published 15 papers in peer-reviewed journals and developed an independent software program that contains a half-million lines of code. He has given invited talks at national and international conferences and departmental colloquiums and is requested regularly for paper and proposal reviews. He has been cited about 7,600 times over his career, according to Google Scholar.

Sisavanh Phouthavong Houghton – Friday Evening

Sisavanh Phouthavong Houghton is a Lao American mixed-media visual artist born in Vientiane, Laos. Her artworks have been exhibited internationally in Greece, New Zealand, and Belgium and nationally at the Knoxville Museum of Art, James Polk Museum, Gadsden Museum of Art, Minnesota Museum of American Art, Asian Arts Initiative, Hunter Museum of American Art, Lauren Rogers Museum of Art, Huntsville Museum of Art, and Reece Museum. Her experiences as a refugee and immigrant from the post-Vietnam War era are the driving force behind her body of work.

Houghton's work has been featured in the New Art Examiner, Wall Street International, Voyage Houston, Shoutout HTX, Create! Magazine, Studio Visit Magazine, The Tennessean, The Pinch, Voice of America, and NPT's Next Door Neighbors. She has been a guest on the Art Fight Podcast, The Art of Outreach, and Drawing South.

Permanent collections include Hunter Museum of American Art; American Embassy in Paramaribo, Suriname; Legacies of War in Washington, D.C.; Tennessee State Museum; and Pinnacle Bank headquarters in Nashville. Houghton earned her B.F.A. from the University of Kansas and M.F.A. at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Houghton was nominated for the 2020 Joan Mitchell Foundation Arts Award. She won the 2019 ArtFields Painting Award and was a recipient of the 2017 Tennessee Arts Individual Artist Fellowship. She is a professor of painting at Middle Tennessee State University. Houghton has won MTSU's Distinguished Creative Activity Award and the Outstanding Teacher Award. The Tri-Star Arts/Andy Warhol Foundation Current Art Fund has funded her research, along with the Tennessee Arts Commission and the generous support of MTSU grants. She has led community art projects with nonprofit organizations such as Southeast Asian Diaspora, Legacies of War, Frist Art Museum, Oasis Center, and Center for Refugees + Immigrants of Tennessee. Houghton is represented by Tinney Contemporary gallery in Nashville.

Dr. Lucy M. Matthews – Saturday Morning

Lucy M. Matthews joined MTSU in fall 2015 and was instrumental in developing the Professional Selling concentration and certificate program offered by the Department of Marketing in the Jones College of Business. She has obtained sponsorship partner funds for the selling program exceeding $150,000.

Matthews has a B.S. in Marketing and Management from Indiana University and an M.B.A. with a concentration in Marketing from Georgia State University. She worked in sales and management for more than 15 years before returning for her doctorate at Kennesaw State University. Her research interests include sales and sales management, burnout, engagement, grit, partial least squares structural equation modeling, and cross-discipline areas related to marketing, such as innovation and entrepreneurship.

Matthews was the recipient of the MTSU Outstanding Teaching Award in 2022, the E. W. “Wink” Midgett Distinguished Research Award in 2019, the State Farm Outstanding Professor Award in 2018, and the Outstanding EXL Faculty Award in 2018. Outside of MTSU, Matthews is a 2021 Rutherford ATHENA Award nominee. She is a past president of the Atlantic Marketing Association, the current president of the Society for Marketing Advances, and the vice chair of the board for Ascend Federal Credit Union, a $3.8 billion asset credit union based in Tullahoma.

Dr. Shannon Harmon – Saturday Afternoon

Shannon Harmon, associate professor in the Department of Elementary and Special Education, joined MTSU in 2013. She works within the K–5 Elementary Education Residency 1 Program, which allows her the opportunity to mentor teacher candidates and partner with schools in Rutherford and surrounding counties in middle Tennessee. Harmon’s courses are EXL and MT Engage designated. She models best practices by providing support, encouragement, and feedback to her teacher candidates as they make the transition from student to professional.

Harmon’s work has been recognized statewide, regionally, and nationally via both publications and presentations. Harmon, in collaboration with Dr. Tom Brinthaupt, published The Elementary School Teacher Technology Guidebook in 2020. Furthermore, she served as an invited speaker at the Tennessee Association of Colleges for Teacher Education fall conference and as co-chair of the Association of Teacher Educators’ 100th Anniversary Clinical Fellows National Symposium.

Harmon is also actively involved in many state and national organizations, including the Tennessee Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, Association of Teacher Educators, and the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation, where she serves as a national accreditation reviewer. She received MTSU’s Outstanding Teaching Award in fall 2022, was named Favorite Professor in 2015 by the 21st Annual Ruthies Awards, and, for 12 consecutive semesters, has been recognized by graduating seniors as a person making a difference.

Academic Regalia

The black gowns and colorful hoods traditionally worn in Middle Tennessee State University Commencement ceremonies have their origins in the Middle Ages.

A statute in England in 1321 required that all “Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors” wear gowns. In the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade “excess in apparel” and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. Scholars were often clerics, as well, and they adopted costumes similar to those of monastic orders. While the special attire covered rank or social status, thus lending a uniform look to ceremonies, it also served another purpose: warmth in drafty, unheated buildings.

As the universities began to pass from the control of the church, colors often were added to the somber robes and hoods, eventually signifying the degrees and specializations.

The cut of the gown, which is usually black, also varies with the degree held—pointed sleeves for the bachelor’s degree; long, closed sleeves with a slit in the arm for the master’s degree; and round, open sleeves for the doctoral degree. While the bachelor’s and master’s gowns have no ornamentation, the doctoral gown is faced down the front with velvet and has three velvet bars across the sleeves.

At Middle Tennessee, hoods are worn by holders of the master’s and doctoral degrees, with the latter being longer. Hoods are lined with the official colors of the universities that conferred the degrees; thus, holders of degrees from MTSU wear hoods lined in blue and white. The velvet edging on the hood, and often the velvet edging on the gown, represents the wearer’s major academic field. Further, the velvet bars on the sleeves may be either black or the same color as the discipline color of the hood. Colors associated with various subjects follow:

Agriculture - Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities - White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business - Drab
Criminal Justice - Midnight Blue
Economics - Copper
Education - Light Blue
Fine Arts - Brown
Home Economics - Maroon
Journalism - Crimson
Law - Purple
Library Science - Lemon
Music - Pink
Nursing - Apricot
Oratory (Speech) - Silver Gray
Philosophy - Dark Blue

Physical Education - Sage Green
Public Health - Salmon
Science - Gold
Social Work - Citron

The black cap, either a mortarboard or a tam, is customarily worn. There is no general rule for the position of the tassel. In practice at Middle Tennessee State University, the tassel is worn on the right. It may be shifted to the left after the degree is awarded. Men may remove their caps during the prayer, the playing of the alma mater, and the commencement address.

Undergraduate Latin honor graduates are distinguished by the stoles added to their gowns based upon the inclusive GPA: gold for those graduating summa cum laude, 3.90 to 4.0; silver for magna cum laude, 3.75 to 3.89; and white for cum laude, 3.50 to 3.74.

Graduating from the University Honors College is an additional merit awarded to students who have completed the Honors program, defended a thesis, and have a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or higher. Graduates of the University Honors College who have completed at least 29 hours with a 3.25 average in the Honors program will receive blue and white cords. Those who have maintained a minimum average of 3.65 in the Honors program are graduating the University Honors College with distinction.

Since 1993, graduates of the University Honors College have received the official Honors medallion in recognition of their final thesis defense and completion of special requirements of the college. The medallion is a replica of the official seal of the University Honors College and depicts a lighted torch, three Ionic columns, and a lightning bolt. Respectively, these symbolize the search for truth and knowledge, the stability and unwavering commitment to pursuing knowledge, and the flash of enlightenment or creative energy.

Some academic honor societies and programs may provide cords, ribbons, medallions, or lapel pins designating the achievement and involvement of their members.

Military veteran students are distinguished by specially designed red stoles in recognition of their admirable service to their country.

Experiential Learning Scholars are distinguished by blue, silver, and white cords. These scholars completed EXL-designated hands-on learning courses, an off-campus service activity, an on-campus service activity, and a portfolio of reflections on their EXL activities. The EXL program provides students with opportunities for hands-on experience, valuable networking, and an opportunity to explore career paths through real-world experience.

MT Engage Scholars are distinguished by royal blue, white, and gold cords. These students completed MT Engage-designated courses that promote active learning and integrated their learning by reflecting on connections across disciplines and between their academic and cocurricular experiences. MT Engage students showcased their integrative learning in an ePortfolio that documented their community and campus involvement as well as the academic knowledge and skills they gained during their time at MTSU.

International students may wear colorful sashes that represent their country of origin. Each sash symbolizes, in color and design, their country's flag.

Undergraduate Research students graduating with Distinction are wearing a dark blue, light blue, and white cord. These students graduating with Scholar Distinction are also wearing a medallion to recognize their completion of a research or creative project, its dissemination to the MTSU campus and/or a nationally recognized conference, and their engagement in promoting undergraduate research to the campus.

Most American colleges and universities have adopted a uniform code. However, at any academic gathering, costumes often are worn that are not described by these guidelines. Some of these may be from foreign universities, with others from American institutions that have preferred to remain with the European tradition of allowing each school to determine its own costume. Silver medallions worn by faculty denote 15 years of service, and gold medallions represent 25 years.

Academic Banners

The banners displayed at Commencement represent the University; its nine colleges (Basic and Applied Sciences, Behavioral and Health Sciences, Business, Education, Liberal Arts, Media and Entertainment, Graduate Studies, University College, and University Honors); Walker Library; and the Faculty Senate. Art Professor Janet Higgins, her student Kristi Baughman, and Darrell Callis Burks, designer in Creative and Visual Services and 2000 B.F.A. graduate, designed and executed the banners. The colors used in each banner represent disciplines within the colleges. The University seal appears in the center of each banner, symbolizing that the whole is greater than any of its parts.

Alma Mater

words and music by Charles Douglas Williams (B.M. '54)

We sing thy prai - ses faith - ful guide of youth;

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Alma Mater'. It features a grand staff with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics 'We sing thy prai - ses faith - ful guide of youth;' are written below the staff.

Through all the a - ges af - firmed and strong in truth.

The second system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the accompaniment continues in the bass clef. The lyrics 'Through all the a - ges af - firmed and strong in truth.' are written below the staff.

Al - ma Ma - ter Mid - dle Ten - nes - see

The third system of musical notation. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the accompaniment continues in the bass clef. The lyrics 'Al - ma Ma - ter Mid - dle Ten - nes - see' are written below the staff.

We proud - ly of - fer our hearts in loy - al - ty.

The fourth system of musical notation, which concludes the song. The melody ends with a double bar line in the treble clef, and the accompaniment ends with a double bar line in the bass clef. The lyrics 'We proud - ly of - fer our hearts in loy - al - ty.' are written below the staff.
